Family of 15 bring their Toe-tappin' Music to Branson!

Loren, Gloria—and their 13 children—are bringing their popular Christmas show to the Branson Star Theatre during November and December.

Showcasing family teamwork, tight harmonies, and award-winning bluegrass pickin', the Wissmann family have spent the past five years traveling the nation, performing by requests from over 36 states, Canada, and Mexico. Their Christmas show features exciting, bluegrass arrangements of classic holiday favorites, accapella six-part caroling, original music, and priceless children's harmonies.

Hailing from Seward County, Nebraska, the Wissmann children range in age from 26 to 2 years old—Rachel, Ruth, Josiah, Bethany, Andrew, Elizabeth, Matthias, Stephen, Hannah, Susanna, Alaythia, Nathanael, and Charissa—respectively.

Music starts at an early age for this crew, and over the years their musical collection has grown to over 15 instruments, including violins, banjo, guitars, mandolin, dobro, hammered dulcimer, harmonicas, keyboard, harp, flute, and more. With a strong bluegrass flavor, their music provides a powerful platform for their close family relationships and love for Jesus Christ.

And now, for the first time ever, they are bringing their heartwarming laughter, talent, and musical skill to the Branson stage.

“While honeymooning here in 1980, my wife and I fell in love with this area, so it is an incredible privilege to be playing here as a family.” says Loren.

Michael, from Circle B Theater in Branson, adds, “We were excited to have the Wissmann family here for the holiday season. They were a great addition to our Christmas season line up.”
